To be programme, including the child labor bill," replied sentence with the steering comittee intended to do about child labor legislation.

"Personally, I would be willing to naty here until the snow files in order to put through the entire programme, including the child labor bill," replied Senator Chamberlain. He did not, however, give the Republicans much satisfaction as to what the steering comititee would do. The committee will as proved in back with her $200, and placed in the case of many letters received from yoters in pivotal states which are worsing the movies have ever known."

LABOR LAW CRITIC L. A. Block Declares Statute

"The workmen's compensation law evades moral obligation," L. A. Block, of St. Louis, told the National Electrical Contractors' Association in convention at the Hotel McAlpin yesterday.

"These laws," said Mr. Block, "are designed to cover the average relations of the employer with the average employe. Where friendly relations exist is not only good business but the
